On October 1, 2019, the first seminar within the framework of the School of Integrity was held at the Karaganda State Technical University. The speakers were teachers of the Department of ANC and SRS Musaev Zh.T., Seydinova M.A., Kayyrbek M.S.

Seminars from the School cycle are a combination of an intense, creative atmosphere, collective and individual forms of training, emotional freedom and continuous interaction between participants.

The purpose of the seminar "School of Integrity" is the formation of an anti-corruption model of behavior in the youth environment and the training of young representatives of the anti-corruption movement of the new formation.

About 80 students of different faculties took part in the work of the School, who received theoretical knowledge about the phenomenon of corruption, about the history of the anti-corruption policy of Kazakhstan, about new mechanisms to combat corruption. The principles of decency, honesty and integrity were presented in detail.

The training was carried out in the form of an intellectual and business game, practical exercises, work in small groups on the task.
