

The master class was held by the group Arh-13-3 - Ilona Adamova, Vladislav Antonenko, Veteorets Stanislav, Kvashnina Catherine, Alexei Semenov, Lily Friedrich, under the leadership of Senior Lecturer Mashtakova E.K. for group of first year students Arh-15-2,3 and Arh-15-2s to familiarize with the basic techniques of professional paper handling in the subject specialty "Architecture" in the department DA & AM 11/11/15 in audience № 114 in 15.00.

The aim of the master class is to create conditions for professional communication among students, self-realization, stimulating the growth of the creative potential and improve technical skills in engineering design mockup.

The objectives are:

- The demonstration of a slideshow with feature of the paper transformation into Designing structures

- The demonstration of its copyright models

- The demonstration of construction techniques to the participants of the master class.

Upon completion of the master class the participants were offered the creative collective task to form compositions from performed in master classes of textured surfaces. Group works were discussed with teachers-architects E.K. Mashtakova and A.Yu. Dubrovina.

