

Report on visiting the Museum of memory of victims of political repression (KarLag) in the village of Dolinka

On April 14, 2020, students of the OP-18-2 and OP-18-2C groups visited the Museum of memory of victims of political repression (KarLag) in the village of Dolinka with the curator of the group Adilova N. D. at the expense of the VKS.

In 1931, the state farm "Giant" with an area of 17 thousand hectares was organized in the Kazakh steppe. Under this name appeared an institution that from 1931 to 1959 forever distorted the fate of 6 million political prisoners, internees and prisoners of war. His name is Karlag NKVD. The total area of the camp is comparable in size to the territory of France. Kazakhs, Germans, Russians, Romanians, Hungarians, poles, Belarusians, Jews, Chechens, Ingush, French, Georgians, Italians, Kirghiz, Ukrainians, Japanese, Finns, Lithuanians, Latvians, Estonians — the infernal millstones of the NKVD crushed everyone, without considering their nationalities.

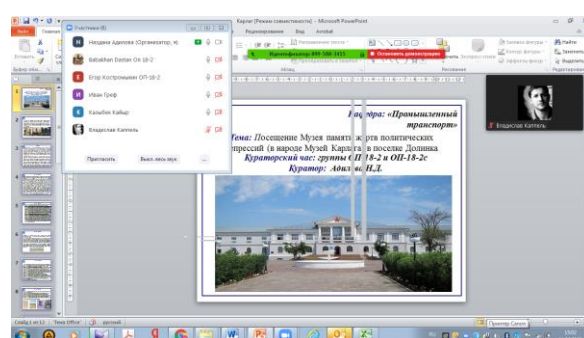

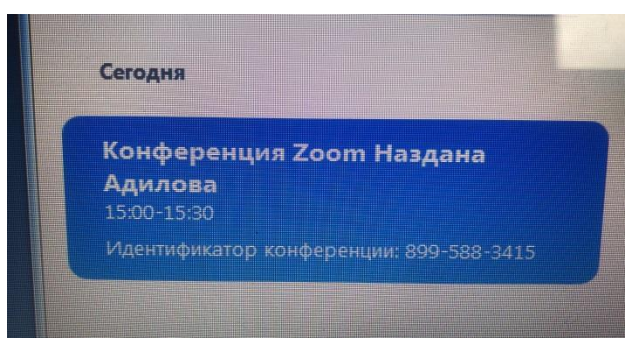

The goal: to Remember pages of our common history that unfortunately we can no longer just forget and dismiss these events. The history of such sad events must be preserved so that humanity does not repeat its mistakes in the future.

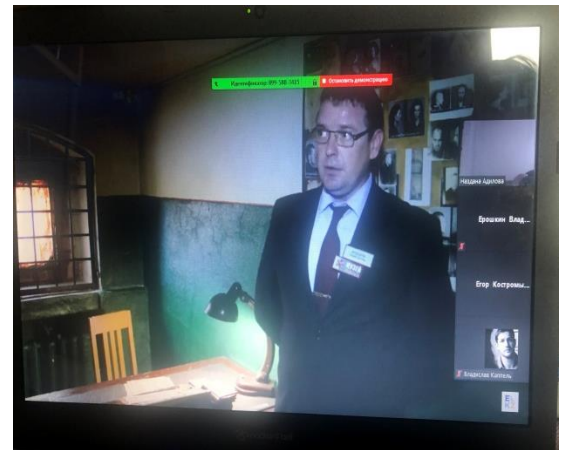

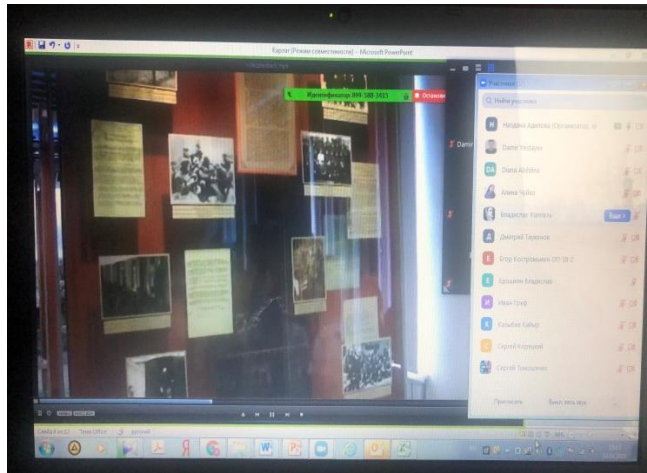

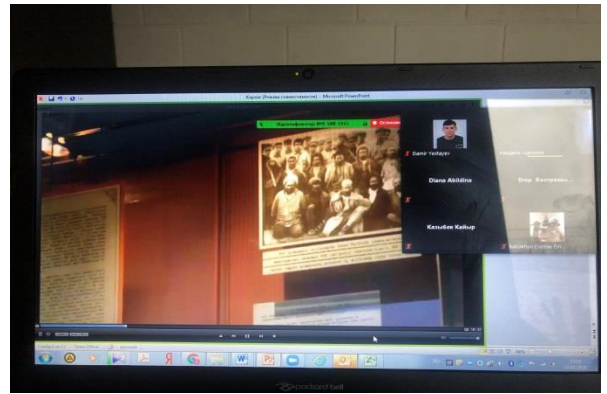

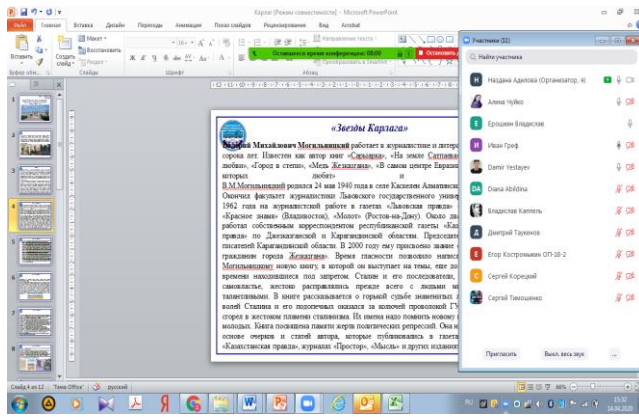

Tasks:

1. to Form knowledge and understanding among young people, so that students feel the full tragedy of the repressions of the famous 58th article of the criminal code of the RSFSR, the pain and poverty of exile, the injustice of ethnic cleansing, hunger in the steppe.

2. to Preserve the memory of famous people and their testimonies – an important part of our national history and world history, our state memory.

The results achieved: we Introduced the young generation of Kazakhstanis to the history of our country, the stages of formation of democratic thinking, the history of human destinies.
