

On February 10, 2021, the Department of "Industrial Transport named after Professor A. N. Daniyarov" of Karaganda Technical University held a master class of the curatorial hour on the Model "Formation of a New Kazakh Patriotism" on the topic "30 years since the closure of the Semipalatinsk test site".

Responsible teacher: Beisembayev D. M.

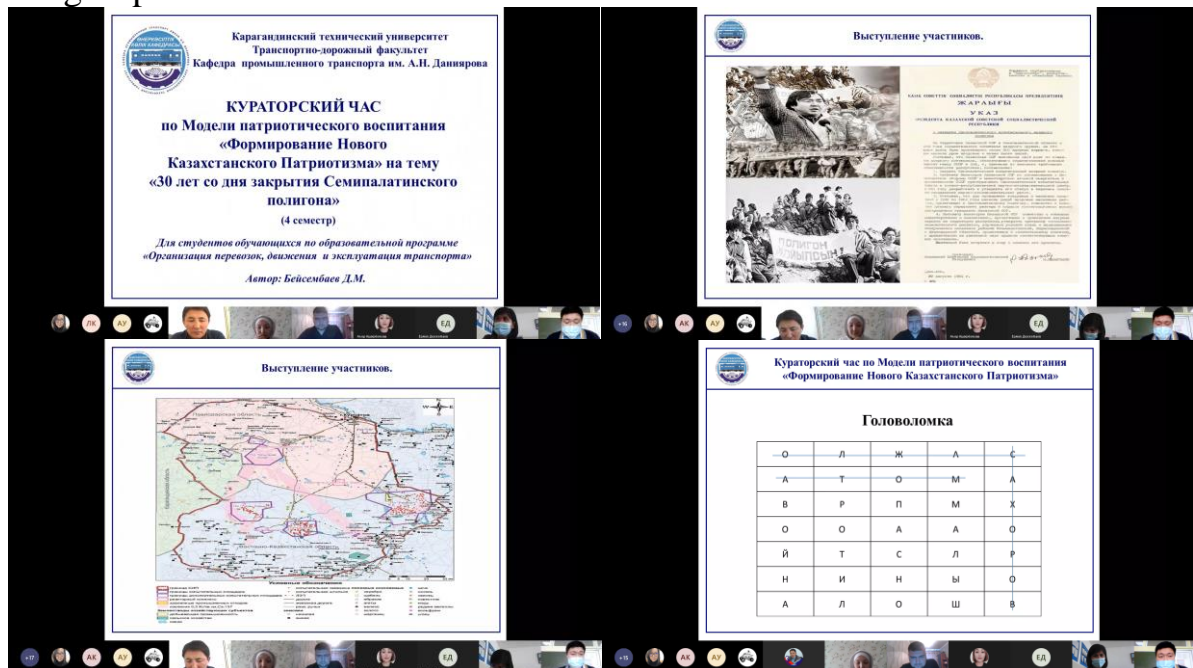

Attended by: students of gr.OP-19-3C (2 pers.); students gr.OP-18-2 (15 people); the Dean of TDF; Deputy Dean for educational work; 's assistant SW; representatives; head. Department PT; senior curator of the Department PT; teachers of the Department of PT and KAIC.

The participation form is remote (online) on the Microsoft Teams platform.

The purpose of the curatorial hour is to introduce students to the history of the Semipalatinsk training ground, develop motivation for cognitive activity, and improve public speaking.

Tasks of the curatorial hour:

- educational: development of cognitive interest in the history of Kazakhstan; expansion of the general outlook of students.
- developing: the formation of students 'communicative and gaming abilities; creating conditions for the development of students' memory, attention, and curiosity.
- educational: fostering a competitive spirit; forming friendly relationships in the group.

Information about the event is available on the official website of the University, in the social network-YouTube channel of the Department of PT (link: <https://youtu.be/jrd6JNg4ISw>)