

Round table " Corruption: causes, influences and methods»

On 25.02.2020, a round table on the topic "Corruption: causes, influences and methods" was held within the Sanaly urpaq club. The main purpose of the round table was legal education of college students and prevention of corruption offenses in general. The round table discussed the main causes of corruption in Kazakhstan; the experience of foreign countries in combating this public evil; methods and mechanisms for the prevention and prevention of corruption offenses. At the round table, students read out reports on their vision of the problem of corruption in education and ways and means of overcoming it. After each speech, the speakers were asked questions, and the discussion of problems often resulted in disputes and disputes. The round table was productive, the participants were unanimous in the opinion that corruption is a hindrance to the development of the country, and it should be fought by all the people.

Groups of KOPZHT 9/18-2, KOPZHT 9/17-1

Curator: I. S. Makhasheva (Coverage of 15 people

