

On October 4, 2021, under the “Road to School” program, the teaching staff of the RMPI department provided assistance to low-income families with many children. Two families, Galiya Kushova and Ainur Serikova, each received a backpack with stationery for schoolchildren.

