

A single all-republican "Hour of Integrity" was held on the topic: "The desire to serve the nation and people is not from knowledge, but from character"

09/01/2021 At the initiative of the Anti-Corruption Agency, a single all-republican "Hour of Integrity" was held on the topic: "The desire to serve the nation and people is not from knowledge, but from character", which was dedicated to the public and statesman A. Bokeikhanov. A. Bokeikhanov is an outstanding personality who has left an unforgettable mark on the socio-political, spiritual, cultural history of the Kazakh people.

The main goal of the event

- to introduce students to the cultural heritage of Kazakhstan on the example of the life and work of the outstanding Kazakh public figure and leader of the Alash party, Alikhan Bokeikhanov;

- to broaden the horizons of college students, instill an interest in learning languages, the history of their country;

- the formation of an anti-corruption culture in the younger generation and the instilling of the most important moral values: honesty, justice, decency and trust.

At the Hour of Integrity, specially designed videos were shown, explanatory work was carried out on the values of honesty and integrity, the negative consequences of corruption and the country's achievements. Undoubtedly, the event will help today's youth acquire not only knowledge, but also universal human values, such as honesty, integrity, justice and trust.

Integrity Hours were held across all college groups. More than 150 students took part in them.
