Отан! Отан!

Сен болмасаң, не етер ем?

Мәңгілікке бақытсыз боп өтер ем,

Өмірден бұл өксуменен кетер ем.

Құс ұясыз,

Жыртқыш інсіз болмайды.

Отансыз жан өмірінде оңбайды.

Өзін өзі қорлайды да сорлайды.

Тірі адамға сол қайғы!

Күн көреді,

Әкесіз де, анасыз,

Өмір сүрер.

Әйелсіз де, баласыз,

Ал Отансыз —

Нағыз сорлы панасыз?

The poem was written in 1973 when the swans were asleep

In this poem, the only child of one family falls seriously ill. Tauip says that a paralyzed child can be cured only if he is removed with the wings of a swan. His father did not dare to kill the swan, so instead his mother took a gun and went to the lake, where the sacred swans live. When she came to the lake, her mother's gun accidentally exploded, and the bullet hit the swan. Hearing the noise, the old horseman came to the lake and gave advice to the mother who killed the swan. Anyway, the mother brings the swan home, but when she returns home, she realizes that her baby is dead.

- Mother - Karakoz is the mother of the child. Brave, courageous, out of love for his child, he lost his child because he shot and killed a sacred swan.
- Child - Balnur is a sick child. His life was on the line.
- Tauip shal - Samal healer. The unconscious man lied to the boy's parents.
- Father - Temirlan is the father of the child. Rabbit heart, honesty. Not wanting to stray from the path of divinity, the sacred swan refused to shoot the bird.
- Herder - Anel is a horse breeder. Reasonable, intelligent, wise. He counseled her and tried to correct her.

At the end of the event, the head of the department Kair Samigullova and senior lecturer Nurlan Zetkhanovich spoke and shared their impressions. The organizer of the event is a senior teacher Temirzhanova Sholpan Meiramovna.

Mukagali's legacy is the eternal legacy of Kazakh poetry. It is a great phenomenon of Kazakh poetry, which has limited the number of black poems worn by many Kazakhs. We believe that the students gained a lot of spiritual wealth from this event.
