

Curatorial hour on the topic: "The Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan on Combating Corruption"

28.10.2021 According to the plan of the "Sanaly Urpak" club, as part of the implementation of the anti-corruption program, a curatorial hour was held in the KPO-9 / 21-2 group on the topic: "The Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan On Combating Corruption". The purpose of the curatorial hour is to form students' categorical rejection of all kinds of corruption manifestations, the formation of civil legal consciousness of the personality of students. Curator Mynbayeva A.S. explained to the students the main provisions of the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan "On Combating Corruption". During the curatorial hour, the most pressing issues of corruption were discussed. There is no place for corruption in our society. In order to unite all the efforts of society and prevent further exacerbation of this disease, it is possible to effectively resist this phenomenon, using all methods of stopping it. Therefore, it is necessary to know that the fight against corruption is a civic duty of all citizens of the Republic of Kazakhstan. (coverage of students - 25 people)

