

Message of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan Kassym-Zhomart Kemelevich Tokayev to the people of Kazakhstan "The unity of the people and systemic reforms - a solid foundation for the country's prosperity"

09/06/2021 At the College of Innovative Technologies of the Karaganda Technical University, among students studying in the specialty "Organization of transportation and traffic management in railway transport", a lecture was held on the topic: Message of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan Kassym-Zhomart Kemelevich Tokayev to the people of Kazakhstan "The unity of the people and systemic reforms - a solid foundation for the country's prosperity", aimed at the socio-economic development of our state and domestic policy.

The organizers of this event were the club "Sanaly Urpak" (coordinator - Umirbekova G.Sh.). 3rd year students took part in the lecture.

The lecture described in detail the main sections of this important state document. The message is devoted to such important issues as economic development in the post-pandemic period, improving the efficiency of the health care system, quality education, improving regional policy, creating an effective ecosystem in the labor market, political modernization and protection of human rights.

In his Address, the Head of State noted that over thirty years of independence, we, having become a single country, have built a sustainable society and embarked on the path of sustainable development, and he noted the outstanding achievements in the creation and development of our Independent country of the First President of the Republic of Kazakhstan - Elbasy Nursultan Nazarbayev.

Speaking about the serious measures taken during the pandemic that swept the world, he noted that our strategic goal is to strengthen our leadership role in Central Asia and strengthen our positions in the global economy.

The content of the Message changes every year. This year it is different from the previous one. The message of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan to the people of Kazakhstan is a great opportunity for us to make plans for the future and implement the main directions.

We hope that the President's Address, which defines important steps for the further development of the country and the improvement of the lives of its citizens, will be unanimously supported by the students of the College of Innovative Technologies of Karaganda Technical University and will take an active part in solving these problems.

(coverage of students - 30 people)

