

Report of "Foreign Languages Department" on the socially-educational event
"Day of Languages is- a symbol of friendship and unity of all citizens of Kazakhstan", held on September 21, 2017
in Students' Palace "Zhastar Alemi"

Objective: To instill interest in the knowledge of the state, Russian and foreign languages, education of patriotism through the study of the cultural heritage of the people.

Tasks:

1. To form the desire to master the Kazakh, Russian and foreign languages.
2. To arouse interest in the study of the traditions and customs of the peoples inhabiting the territory of Kazakhstan.
3. To cultivate respect for different languages and a desire to learn, know languages.

The policy of our state is aimed at strengthening the equality of the peoples of Kazakhstan, regardless of their ethnicity. The principles of the state language policy are defined by the Constitution of the Republic of Kazakhstan, in the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan "On Education" and "On Languages in the Republic of Kazakhstan".

The language policy in Kazakhstan is aimed at the development of the cultural heritage of all ethnic groups living in hospitable Kazakh land. In connection with which Decree of the President of the Republic of January 20, 1998, with the aim of cultivating love and respect for the native language and his country and expanding knowledge of languages and traditions of different nationalities, September 22 was declared the Day of the Languages of the Peoples of Kazakhstan.

According to the current legislation, every citizen of the Republic of Kazakhstan has the right to use his native language and to freely choose the language of communication, education, training and creativity.

And this is objective, because language is a means of education and a pillar of the binding relationship of people. In turn, the Day of Languages is a sign of friendship, kinship and unity of all citizens of the country. Friendship of peoples, mutual understanding and cooperation is the main pillar of the construction of new Kazakhstan.

Language is a support of friendship, language is a special tool contributing to the rapprochement of peoples.
