

Master class “Healthy family, healthy nation”,
“Education and knowledge” in the framework of the program
“Rukhani zhagyru”

November 19 at the Department of TEMS in the group MASH16-1p by Professor Sherov K.T. A master class was held for the curatorial hour on the topic “A healthy family, a healthy nation”, “Education and knowledge” in the framework of the program “Rukhani zhagyru”. The theme of the curatorial master class corresponds to the calendar plan of curatorial hours according to the Patriotic Education Model “Formation of New Kazakhstan Patriotism” for the 7th semester “Ecology and Health of the Nation”.

The curatorial hour was attended by students of the group MASH16-1p and MASH17-2, dean of the MF, teachers and graduate students of the department "Technological equipment, mechanical engineering and standardization", teachers of the department "Nanotechnology and Metallurgy", employees of the youth policy department.

The main goal of the master class is, within the framework of the article of the First President, “A look into the future: Rukhani zhagyru”, to show the importance of the folk wisdom that remained from our ancestors in aphorisms, traditions and attitudes for young families and the young generation for deep understanding of the aspirations and values of their family.

Also give explanations about the activities of the “Family Creation” Institute of the Republic of Kazakhstan, the relevance of its further development. Explain to the young generation that a healthy family, a healthy nation, is education and training, that the concepts are not separated from each other.

During the curatorial hours, statistics on the divorce of young families in the Republic of Kazakhstan and neighboring countries were presented and a discussion was held on the problems of how to deal with divorce, raising a child after divorce, the impact of divorces on society.

Information was provided on the national competition "Mereyli Obybasy". The head of state, Nursultan Nazarbayev, in 2013 signed a decree on holding the national contest “Merry Obybasy” at the state level in order to draw attention to the values of the family in society, to increase the responsibility of parents to children, and since then this competition has been held every year. Information was given about the families that became winners of the national contest “ Mereyli Obybasy” in 2014 and 2019.

With the help of slides, the words of edification left over from our ancestors in the Kazakh and Russian languages were demonstrated, their meaning and significance were revealed.

Video clips were also shown on various situations occurring in families and videos on the theme “Homeland begins with the family”. The events in the video were confirmed by the following folk proverbs and sayings. The essence and significance of the videos was discussed with the audience. The curator’s hour ended with poems by a young poet, student of the MASH16-1p group Kumar Beibit on the theme “Healthy family, healthy nation”.

The closing words of the group's curator, Professor K. Sherov, Dean of the faculty I. Erakhtina, senior curator of the department K. Imasheva, member of the Council of aksakals G. Seydinova were heard.

It was suggested that a member of the Council of aksakals and employees of the Department of Youth Policy show the materials of this master class at the curator hours of academic groups with the Kazakh language of instruction of KSTU.

