

On 20.04.2020, a curatorial hour was held on the theme "New faces of Kazakhstan" with the group OP-18-2. Curator Adilova N. D.

The purpose of the project "New faces of Kazakhstan" is to promote the ideas of success, competitiveness, pragmatism and the cult of knowledge on the examples of specific stories of people who have made a significant contribution to the development of Kazakhstan during the years of Independence. Since the start of the project, more than 5,000 people have taken part in it and told their stories to the public. Each participant is a unique story that has contributed to the development of Independent Kazakhstan.

The stories of successful people are attractive because we try to learn the secrets of success from them using the formula "came-saw – won". But examples from the life of "hunters" for fast, sometimes illusory fame constantly teach us that only work, determination and faith in what you do, gives good results. A series of publications about the winners of the project "100 new faces of Kazakhstan" will help you understand this immutable truth. Our heroes, as you will be able to see, are so different, but they are United by hard work and, of course, not only that.

