

On May 5, 2020 at 1500 o'clock the curators of the department «Kazakh language and literature» of Karaganda State Technical University Sagatova G.K., Kuleimenova L.M., Tusupbekova E.K., Ospangaliyeva M.T. and students of groups Log-18-1, TT-19-1, Log-19-2, OP-19-1 made an online tour of the museum «In memory of the victims of political repressions» in the village Dolinka.

The Aim of the tour: to inform students about the victims of political repressions. Educate students in the spirit of patriotism, to protect the country and the land.

Guide of the tour: Omarbek Aizere Khasenovna, a researcher at the Museum «Memory of Victims of Political Repressions».

Guide: KarLAG (Karaganda labor camp) was organized during the mass political repressions. KarLAG presented a lot of information about the history, exhibits and archival documents related to the victims of repressions.

It was noted that from 1930 to 1953, 3 million 778 thousand 254 people served their sentences on various charges, including scientists, politicians and cultural figures, all of whom were forced to work and died. Students asked questions and were pleased with the answer of the guide.
