

On May 4, 2020 teachers of the Department of Kazakh Language and Culture of Karaganda State Technical University, Candidate of Philological Sciences, Acting Associate Professor S.A. Kenzhegaliev, senior teacher, Ph.D. K.K. Nurzhanova organized an online event dedicated to the Day of State Symbols of the Republic of Kazakhstan "Symbols - our national pride!" (number of participants - 25).

The purpose of the lesson:

Education: comprehensive development of students' knowledge of state symbols, understanding of national symbols in each part, explaining to them the importance of state symbols, their special respect and pride.

Upbringing: upbringing students to patriotism, love for their country, land, homeland, instilling in them a sense of pride for their country;

The anthem of the Republic of Kazakhstan was performed.

Introduction: We are the young generation of the independent Kazakh nation. So let's not forget that we must respect, love and protect our land like our fathers and grandfathers!

Students of BT-19-2 group, who took part in the cognitive lesson, told about the history of state symbols and shared data. He read in pairs the verses about the symbols.

