

On May 30, 2021, in Penza (Russia), the II International research competition "Young Teacher" was held, according to the results of which the students of the Department of NTM Steer A. (group MET-19-3) and Kainetova F. (group MET-20-3) with the scientific work "Formation of students' patriotism "in the framework of the direction" Preservation of national identity "of the program" Rukhani Zhangyru "in the section" Patriotic education " became winners and received a diploma of the first degree.

Senior teachers of the Department of NTM Platonova E. S. and Yudakova V. A. acted as scientific supervisors in the preparation of the work.

We congratulate the students on their victory in the international competition and wish them further victories and high achievements!

