4. Auction fulfillment

14. The auction is held with two methods of bidding: increase of the price and decrease of the price.

15. When the auction is held to increase the price, the starting price of the object of sale is equal to the initial price, if the auction is held to decrease the price, the starting price is determined by means of multiplying the initial price by a multiplying coefficient, which is equal to 3.

The object of sale is put up for the auction for the first time to increase the price.

Participants of the auction enter the auction room during one hour before the beginning of the auction, using an electronic digital signature and an auction's number. The auction starts at the time, specified in the notification of bidding execution by means of automatically placing the starting price of the object of sale in the auction room.

Bidding is carried out on the web portal from Tuesday to Friday, except for holidays and weekends, determined by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan. The auction is held from 10:00 to 17:00 as per Nur-Sultan time, moreover the auction starts not later than 15:00.

If the winner of the auction is not determined at the end of the auction of increasing the price, at 17:00, then the winner is a participant, who has been the last person, confirmed his desire to purchase the object of sale and the auction of this object of sale is considered to be held.

If the winner of the auction is not determined at the end of the auction of decreasing the price, at 17:00, then the auction of this object of sale is considered to be failed.

If none of participants is registered at the beginning of the auction of the object of sale in the auction room, then the auction of this object of sale is considered to be failed.

16. An interval of the price change is determined as follows:

1) if amount of the starting or current price of the object of sale is up to 20,000-fold amount of the monthly calculation index, an interval of the change is determined in the amount of 10 percent at the auction of increasing the price and in the amount of 5 percent at the auction of decreasing the price;

2) if the amount of the starting or current price of the object of sale is from 20,000-fold to 50,000-fold amount of the monthly calculation index, the interval of the change is determined in the amount of 7 percent at the auction of increasing the price and in the amount of 5 percent at the auction of decreasing the price;

3) if the amount of the starting or current price of the object of sale is from 50,000-fold to 100,000-fold amount of the monthly calculation index, the interval of the change is determined in the amount of 5 percent;

4) if the amount of the starting or current price of the object of sale is from 100,000-fold to 250,000-fold amount of the monthly calculation index, the interval of the change is determined in the amount of 2.5 percent at the auction of increasing the price and in the amount of 5 percent at the auction of decreasing the price;

5) if the amount of the starting or current price of the object of sale is from 250,000-fold to 500,000-fold amount of the monthly calculation index, the interval of the change is determined in the amount of 1 percent at the auction of increasing the price and in the amount of 5 percent at the auction of decreasing the price;

6) if the amount of the starting or current price of the object of sale is from 500,000-fold amount of the monthly calculation index and more, the interval of the change is determined in the amount of 0.5 percent at the auction of increasing the price and in the amount of 5 percent at the auction of decreasing the price.

The auction is held, according to one of two methods, described below.

17. The auction of increasing the price:

1) if none of the participants has confirmed their desire to purchase the object of sale, as per the starting price during twenty minutes from the beginning of the auction in the auction room, then the auction of this object of sale is considered to be failed;

2) if none of the participants confirms their desire to purchase the object of sale by means of increasing the starting price during twenty minutes after confirmation of the starting price in the auction room, then the participant, who has confirmed the starting price, is considered to be the winner and the auction of this object of sale is considered to be held.

18. The auction, where only one participant has participated, is considered to be held, if the participant has confirmed the starting price;

3) if one of the participants confirms his desire to purchase the object of sale by means of confirming the starting or current price during twenty minutes from the moment of confirmation of the starting or current price, this price is increased by the interval, determined by the point No.43 of the regulation.

The auction of increasing the price of the object of sale is held up to a maximum price, offered by one of the participants.

19. The auction of decreasing the price:

1) if none of the participants confirms their desire to purchase the object of sale in the auction during two minutes from the beginning of the auction, then the starting price of the object of sale is decreased by the interval, which is determined, according to the point No.43 of the regulation;

2) if none of the participants has confirmed their desire to purchase the object of sale during two minutes after decrease of the price, then the last announced price of the object of sale is decreased with a determined interval. The winner of the auction of decreasing the price is considered to be the participant, who has been first to confirm his desire to purchase the object of sale, as per the announced price and the auction of this object of sale is considered to be held;

3) if the price of the object of sale has reached determined minimum amount and none of the participants has confirmed their desire to purchase the object of sale, then the auction is considered to be failed;

4) The auction, where only one participant has participated, is considered to be held, if the participant has confirmed the starting or current price.

5. Results of bidding execution

30. The results of bidding of each sold object are recorded in the report of bidding results, which is signed by the seller and the winner on the web portal of the register, using the electronic digital signature on the day of the auction fulfillment.

31. The report of bidding results is a document, which records the results of the auction or a competition and obligations of the winner and the seller to sign the contract of purchase and sale of the object, as per the sale price;

The contract of purchase and sale is concluded in electronic format on the web portal of the register and signed by the seller and the buyer, using the electronic digital signature within a period of not more than ten calendar days from the date of signing the report of bidding results. In addition, the seller provides a draft of the contract of purchase and sale to the buyer for signing within a period of not more than five calendar days from the date of signing the report of bidding results, except for:

1) the case, when alienation of the object of sale is possible only after obtaining permission from the authorized state body. In such cases, the contract of purchase and sale is signed within the period, agreed by the seller and the winner.

It is allowed to conclude the contract of purchase and sale in a written form, as per a form, agreed by the seller and the buyer.

32. If the participant, who has won at bidding, does not sign the report of bidding results or infringes the point No.72-1 of the regulation, the seller does not pay back the guarantee fee.

6. Final provisions

33. The contract of purchase and sale is concluded between the seller and the buyer with reference to the report of bidding results as a basis for concluding the contract of purchase and sale.

The committee specifies a condition in the contract of purchase and sale that the buyer has the right of ownership of the object of sale after his full payment.

34. After signing the contract of purchase and sale, the winner provides copies of the following documents to the committee with obligatory submission of the original documents for comparison or notarized copies of these documents:

1) for individuals: a passport or an identification document of the natural person;

2) for legal entities: certificates or a certificate of the state registration (reregistration) of a legal entity;

3) a document, which certifies the authority of a representative of the legal entity, as well as the passport or the identification document of the legal entity's representative.

The original documents are given back during one working hour after comparison.

When signing the contract of purchase and sale, the winner of competition provides the original documents or the notarized copies of the documents, attached to an application to the committee.

35. Payments are made between the seller and the buyer, as per the contract of purchase and sale, moreover the buyer makes the payments as follows:

1) an advance payment is made in the amount of at least 15% of the sale price of the object within a period of not later than ten working days from the date of signing the contract of purchase and sale. The advance payment is guarantee of the proper fulfillment of obligations by the buyer, as per the contract of purchase and sale. The guarantee fee is counted against the due advance payment;

2) the rest of sum is paid, as agreed by the parties, but not later than thirty calendar days from the date of signing the contract of purchase and sale.

All payments are made between the seller and the buyer by bank transfer through a bank account of the seller, specified in the contract of purchase and sale.

If the final payment is not made on time, it is allowed to cancel the contract of purchase and sale unilaterally. If the contract of purchase and sale is canceled due to a delay of the final payment, the advance payment will not be refunded.

36. Transfer of the object of sale is carried out after the buyer has made the full payment of the sale price, as per the contract of purchase and sale.

A signed transfer and acceptance certificate is a basis for carrying out the state registration of a change of ownership of the sold object.

If the winner does not sign the transfer and acceptance certificate within the prescribed period, the seller signs a certificate of bidding results cancelation, which is formed on the web portal of the register.

37. If the winner does not sign the electronic report of bidding results within timeframes, specified in the regulation or infringes the point No.72-1 of the regulation, then the seller / the organizer signs the certificate of bidding results cancelation, which is formed by the web portal of the register.

If the buyer refuses to sign the contract of purchase and sale within the period, specified in the point No.68 of the regulation or if the buyer does not fulfil or improperly fulfils the obligations, as per the contract of purchase and sale, or does not provide the seller with the documents, specified in the point No.71 of the regulation, the seller does not pay back the guarantee fee and the certificate of bidding results cancelation, which is formed by the web portal of the register, is signed with the electronic digital signature.

38. An installment payment is allowed only in cases, when conditions of the possible installment have been reported to the participants of bidding in advance. Moreover, amount of the initial installment cannot be less than fifteen percent of the sale price and an installment's period cannot exceed three years.

39. An initial payment is made by the buyer during thirty calendar days from the date of signing the contract of purchase and sale. When paying subsequent sums, interests are accrued to the sums, which are not paid by the seller yet, as per an official refinancing rate of the National Bank of the Republic of Kazakhstan. The subsequent sums must be paid at least once a quarter.

The guarantee of making the payments in time can be a right of the seller to pledge the property, purchased by the buyer, if another method of the guarantee is not specified in the contract of purchase and sale.

40. When selling the object on the installment plan, the transfer is carried out by means of signing the transfer and acceptance certificate of the object of sale after making the initial payment and concluding a pledge contract at the same time, which is subjected to appropriate registration, if another method of the guarantee is not specified in the contract of purchase and sale.
