

Meeting on admission to the magistracy

On March 30, a meeting was held with graduates of the Faculty of Energy, Automation and Telecommunications. Students of the educational programs "Heat power engineering", "Electric power engineering" listened to information about the educational programs of the master's program at the department. The issues of preparation for passing the entrance exams, as well as the prospects that open up after receiving the title of Master of Engineering and Technology were touched upon.

