

ROUND TABLE ON THE THEME "NAURYZ ULYSTYN ULY KUNI"

On March 17, 2022, on the eve of the spring holiday "Nauryz", curator of the group Log-20-2 and log-20-2C Sungatollayevna A. held a round table on the topic "Nauryz ulystyn uly Kuni".

Among the participants of the round table were students of groups Log-20-2, Log-20-2c, TT-19-2, TT-20-2, curators Pak I.A., Kutienko S.Yu., teachers of the department Zhumabekov A.T., Shalaev V.V., Zharkenov N.B., Khamzina K.M., senior curator of the faculty Maulenova A.M., Deputy Dean for educational work Ospangalieva M.T.

The round table was hosted by students Andrei Volokontsev and Asem Beisekeeva, the event was held in two languages.

The purpose of the round table:

- to introduce students to the culture and traditions of the Kazakh people;
- to foster love and respect for traditions;
- to activate the cognitive interest of students in the study of history;
- to promote the development of students' communicative skills (to express their point of view, to work in pairs, in a team, listening to the opinions of other members, etc.);
- to foster patriotic feelings.

The solemn opening of the Round Table began with the performance of compositions on dombra.

In honor of the spring holiday of Nauryz, students prepared presentations, told and organized games on topics: "history of the revival of nauryz", "common and traditions of Nauryza", "National Law of Nauryza", "Asyk Atu" and "Kuz synasu".

A quiz was held, where questions were asked about the traditions of the Kazakh people and about the spring holiday "Nauryz".

At the end of the event, all the participants of the round table danced amicably and cheerfully to the music of "Kara Zhorga"!

Nauryz is one of the ancient traditions of the Eastern peoples.

Embodying the rebirth of nature, Nauryz brings elements of ecological consciousness into the culture of the modern world, emphasizing the unity of human society regardless of political, racial and religious differences.
