

Open lesson of senior teacher, master Draganova M.A. in the discipline
“Heat supply and green energy” in groups EE-21-4 and EE-21-5

Yesterday, 09/21/2023, senior teacher of the Department of Electrical Energy Draganova Margarita Anatolyevna held an open lesson in the discipline "Heat supply and green energy" in groups EE-21-4 and EE-21-5 on the topical topic "Green energy as a direction of global development" , where the issues of the concept of "green energy", issues of the transition to "green" energy on a global scale were considered, the "green bridge" partnership program of the Republic of Kazakhstan, the transition to "green" energy in the Republic of Kazakhstan were considered. Students also became familiar with the term "sustainable development", factors of sustainable development and issues of determining sustainable development goals in Kazakhstan.