

Thanksgiving day event

On March 1, Kazakhstan celebrated Thanksgiving Day. Every year this holiday acquires more and more shades of meaning for the citizens of our country, it becomes more and more important. On the same day, the Assembly of the People of Kazakhstan was established in the country. This day can be called a bright holiday of Kazakhstani patriotism, unity and friendship. This is the day when people of different nationalities thank the Kazakh people for sharing their joys and sorrows with everyone in difficult times.

In the tragic years of political repressions and deportations of the 20th century, millions of people were grateful to each other for help and support. It gave people deprived of everything the strength and the opportunity to survive, to regain hope, to start life anew. At the present time, eyewitnesses, as well as descendants of those who survived the era of persecution, remember with great warmth the care and hospitality found on the sacred land of Kazakhstan.

As part of the "Rukhani Zhangyru" program and the celebration of the 30th anniversary of the Independence of the Republic of Kazakhstan, students of the TCC department celebrated this holiday by laying flowers at the memorial sign Qazaq eline myn algys.

On this day, we all feel gratitude to our parents, friends, relatives who are next to us every day. Thanksgiving is a very good thing. We need to say thank you at least once a year to all of us for the fact that we were born as people, we live among people.
