M., masters of pedagogical sciences Sagatova G. K., Nurzhanova K. K. organized an interfaculty subject Olympiad on knowledge Kazakh language "Kazakh tilin bilgenin – oz elindi suygenin".

The Olympiad was timed to coincide with the 130th anniversary of the outstanding Kazakh writer, playwright Beimbet Zharmagambetovich Mailin. This event was a unique opportunity for students to test their knowledge at their Alma mater.

The purpose of the Olympiad:

- to introduce a brief biography of the outstanding writer Beimbet Mailin, who put forward the slogan of the complete eradication of illiteracy;
- increasing interest in learning the language;
- formation of cognitive activity;
- improving the quality of education in the Kazakh language.

The Olympiad was creative in nature. The tasks required students not only to know the grammar and vocabulary of the Kazakh language, but also honest speech, understanding, correct and logical presentation of their thoughts and conducting a conversation on a specific topic.

More than 20 students of the university faculties took part in the Olympiad.

The Olympiad consisted of two rounds:

Round 1-literacy of correct writing (essay);
