7. Procedure for registration of foreign citizens:

After crossing the state border, foreign citizens, on the first day of entry into the territory of the Republic of Kazakhstan (including weekends and holidays), must report to the Center for International Cooperation, office 241, main building.

To register a passport, foreign citizens must submit:

For countries with a visa regime:

- passport and a copy of the passport with a note on crossing the state border and visa;
- a migration card issued at the border;
- notarized written consent of the apartment owner or a certificate from the hostel.

For countries with a visa-free regime:

- passport and a copy of the passport with a note on crossing the state border and visa;
- a migration card issued at the border;
- an extract from the order for enrollment, transfer from course to course;
- notarized written consent of the apartment owner or a certificate from the hostel.

The Center for International Cooperation registers the passports of foreign citizens with the migration police within three working days after each crossing of the state border of the Republic of Kazakhstan (from any foreign country). Calculation of the specified time limits starts from 00.01 hours.

Foreign citizens of the countries are required to arrive in the Republic of Kazakhstan not earlier than the start date of the study (work) visa. In the case of entry on other visas (tourist, private, etc.), foreign citizens must leave before the date of the study (work) visa and arrive on the day of its validity or later.

Every foreign citizen must reside in a registered place of residence. Non-compliance of the actual address of residence with the address indicated during registration is a violation of migration legislation.

When changing their place of residence, before moving to a new address, a foreign citizen must submit to the Center for International Cooperation:

- original and copy of passport and visa;
- a copy of the identity card and notarized consent for temporary residence from the landlord. Only after submitting the above documents can a foreign citizen move to a new address.

Foreigners from countries with which an agreement on visa-free regime is concluded are exempt from registration in Kazakhstan for 30 calendar days.

For foreigners staying for a period of more than 30 days, a temporary residence permit is required.

8. Participation in international programs

International students studying at Abylkas Saginov Karaganda Technical University can take part in academic mobility, starting from the 2nd year with good academic performance, as well as in various international educational programs such as DAAD, Erasmus +.

Senior bachelor's and master's degree students with good academic performance and foreign language proficiency can take part, and they are looking to expand their professional knowledge and gain experience not only in obtaining education according to international criteria, but also in communicating with students from different countries. Training is conducted either in English or in the language of the host country.

The duration of training depends on the chosen program and can range from one semester to two.

9. Preparation for studying in Kazakhstan

We recommend that you prepare for your departure carefully and as early as possible, as it is often difficult and time-consuming to complete all the formalities and prepare the necessary documents.
