

The obligation of foreign students temporarily residing in the territory of the Republic of Kazakhstan

A foreign student must:

1. A foreign student temporarily residing in the territory of the Republic of Kazakhstan is obliged to comply with the norms of the current migration legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan, as well as timely provide the necessary information and documents required to comply with the rules of migration registration.

2. After the end of the academic year, leave the territory of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

3. In case of loss or change of the national passport, change of contact details, immediately notify the Center for International Cooperation. Upon obtaining a residence permit or citizenship of the Republic of Kazakhstan, immediately submit the relevant documents to the Center for International Cooperation.

4. A foreign student with a residence permit is required to reside at the permanent residence address or to register temporarily through the Center for International Cooperation.

A foreign student has the right to receive timely information and organizational assistance from the Center for International Cooperation, Deans of Faculties, curators.

A foreign student is administratively responsible for:

- stay in the Republic of Kazakhstan without registration;
- non-departure from the Republic of Kazakhstan or evasion of departure after the expiration of the visa or registration;
- employment with a study visa.

In case of violation of the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan and/or the rules of stay in the territory of the Republic of Kazakhstan, a foreign student studying independently bears full financial responsibility.