1	Anti-Corruption Poster Exhibition	On February 20, 2026, at the Saginov Technical University of Karaganda, an Anti-Corruption Poster Exhibition was organized on the initiative of the "Sanaly Urpaq" Student Club within the framework of promoting the ideology of “Law and Order.” The exhibition was aimed at fostering an anti-corruption culture among students. More than 60 creative works were submitted for the exhibition. Students from all faculties of the university actively participated, demonstrating a high level of interest in issues of academic integrity, civic responsibility, and the rejection of corruption. Thirty of the best student works were selected for display. The posters were created using a variety of artistic techniques, including both traditional forms of visual art and modern digital tools, including artificial intelligence technologies. The exhibited works stand out for their originality, unique artistic approaches, and profound interpretation of anti-corruption themes.	2nd-3rd year students (200 people)	https://www.instagram.com/p/DVOIsJcDBbZ/?igsh=eXN5MXYzanp2MXA=
